授業の概要 Course Overview	JAB2-1 is a conversation class for international students at the upper beginner level. It meets once a week (Friday, 3rd period) and is linked to JA2-1: in each class, students review the grammar learned in JA2-1 that week, practice the dialogues in GENKI II, and create and perform short skits in pairs or groups. Three larger skit presentations are held during the semester; each is prepared and performed entirely within class time. This class requires active learning rather than passive participation.
